

Good Afternoon Board Administrators!

ASBOG will be conducting an hour-long webinar on February 13, 2019 at 1:00 pm EST: “Professional Geologist Licensure Requirements and the ASBOG National Geology License Examinations.”. The webinar is part of the Geoscience Online Learning Initiative (GOLI) series hosted by the American Geosciences Institute (AGI) and the American Institute of Professional Geologists (AIPG).

Laurie Racca, PG, chairperson of ASBOGs Committee on Examinations, Jack Warner, PhD, ASBOGs Psychometrician, and Randy Kath, PhD, PG, ASBOGs Curriculum Performance Assessment Tool (CPAT) Coordinator will be conducting the Webinar with the target audience being University department chairs and professors. Laurie will provide an overview of geology licensure requirements in the United States, Jack will then discuss the examination process and statistical evaluation of the examinations, and Randy will finish with a tutorial on how professors can use data from the FG examination for curriculum assessment and modification. Duration of the webinar is anticipated to be 1.5 hours to allow for questions and it is free.

AGI and AIPG have sent the announcement to their email distribution lists and we are also posting information to ASBOGs social media accounts.

And now for “the ask”.....We’re hopeful that our Boards will also help us get the word out by forwarding this information and/or the flyers attached to this message to your University contacts. If possible, please also consider posting the information on your websites.
